I have used it in my family for sixteen years, and found it even more than you claim for it in treating cases of chills or malarial fevers. I have known in several instances three doses to stop chilis, and one member of our family was cured of Malarial Fever by it when given up to die by physicians. As a tonic I consider it has no equal.

Sixty-five Tons of Paper Will Continue to Blaze for a Week.

CHICAGO, April 10 .- Fire last night swept through the six-story brick building generally known as the Hollister block, at 256-260 Madison street, the utheast corner of Market street.

After an hour the building was a wreck, and its contents practically ruined. The loss was estimated at above $310,000, a large part of which was in job printing office machinery, stock, and material.

For a time adjacent buildings were threatened, but the loss outside of the one structure was due simply to smoke and water. The basement of the Chicago Evening Journal building was damaged somewhat.

The fire may have started in the plant of the Superior Brass Company, or in the Hollister shop on the floor below, near an elevator shaft. The cause is really unknown, but the conflagration is blazned to crossed electric wires.

More than sixty-five tons of paper teenth and Eighteenth streets—George were stored in the basement of the L. D. A. de Geofroy et al. to E. shooting was without provocation or excuse. Winebarger was in no danger of bodily harm, and we will show you that it was a clear case of unjustified homicide. Attorney Wells., who is associated with Attorney eGorge Merrick, of Marlboro; George S., Hoover, of Washington, and Attorney Lovell, of North Carolina, said the defense would reserve its opening until the prosecution had closed.

Judge Merrick then took a recess for half an hour.

Corporal Winebarger appeared bright and cheerful in court this morning and seemed confident of acquittal. He will take the stand in his own behalf and testify that he shot only when he thought his life was in danger. A number of fellow soldiers from the One Hundred and Fourth Coast Artillery, at Fort Washington, were in court this morning to testify for the defense.

Judge Merrick urged that the case be concluded this afternoon, but there are more than a score of witnesses on each side.
